

Journal of Catholic Social Thought

Volume 7 – Number 1

Table of Contents

Introduction

Catholic Social Teaching and Health Care in the United States .....	1
Barbara E. Wall, Villanova University
Catholic Social Teaching and Just Health Care Policy .....	7
Carol Keehan, D.C., Catholic Health Association of the United States
A Church That Heals: Sign of Hope for Appalachia and Beyond .....	17
Most Rev. Michael J. Bransfield, Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston, West Virginia
Catholics and Health Care: Justice, Faith and Hope .....	29
Lisa Sowle Cahill, Boston College

Reform in the Context of Catholic Social Teaching

A Practical Proposal for Increasing Access to Health Care, Improving Quality of Care and Containing Health Care Expenditures .....	51
Stephen M. Davidson, Boston University
Crisis in Care: Family, Society and the Need for Subsidiarity in Caregiving .....	63
Meghan J. Clark, St. Anselm College
Children in Jeopardy: Anthropogenic Toxins and Childhood Exposure .....	83
Russell A. Butkus and Steven A. Kolmes, University of Portland
Inner-City Healthcare and Higher Education: A Partnership in Catholic Social Teaching .....	115
Lynn-Beth Satterly, Barbara M. Carranti, Rev. Msgr. Neal Quartier, Christopher P. Morley and Joseph Marina, S.J.

Catholic Higher Education and Catholic Social Teaching

Applying the Tradition of Catholic Social Thought to Education for Business .....	131
William J. Byron, S.J., Saint Joseph's University
Catholic Universities, Solidarity and the Right to Education in the American Context .....	145
Gerald J. Beyer, St. Joseph's University

Documentation

---

Health Care in America: A Catholic Proposal for Renewal ..... 181
Catholic Medical Association (2004)